IS THERE ANY TRUTH IN THIS?

Prof. Rathnaswamy, we are told, has been listed to give some expert opinion on constitutional matters affecting Mysore in its relation to all-India affairs. We neither confirm or deny this latest appointment because we are not such close favourites to be called in for a generous dish out of scoops from the spokesman of the Mysore Secretariat. If there is a tinge of credibility in the news that the learned Vice-Chancellor of the Annamalai University is drafted on to Mysore "in addition to his own duties" at Chidambaram, we have no hesitation in calling it a master stroke in the matter of Government appointments. For, no man is so indispensable as to see that he draws his emoluments in two separate places proving to the hil the saying "two birds at one stroke." Even a man of the calibre of Prof. Rathnaswamy can be spared from this painful necessity ot double rations. Perhaps he will hop to Bangalore now and then and utter a few expert opinions and get back to the sanctity of Sri Nataraja. Or he will soon get tired from constant travelling and report to the high-priests of the Mysore Government to quickly relieve him or make him secure in Bangalore. Well, we are not worried as to the precise kind of music he is called upon to face in future.

Perhaps the official gentry in Mysore are not aware that locally we have a few people who can courageously spell any word in politics or get any constitution constructed in the nick of time. Why should Prof. Rathnaswamy get a wake up for this seemingly simple affair? There is nothing now in Mysore to warrant any expert advise on constitutional matters. Federation is forgotten long ago, and except the parrot cry that Cripps offer still holds the field, we have no mention of these federation problems. Further there is no need here also to consult any one on the soundness of Responsible Government or on the ethics of Popular Government. Any Mysore University Professor on politics will answer these questions. We do not say Prof. Rathnaswamy is unwanted here. He can visit Bangalore for a good spree and settle here comfortably without minding what we do or how Mysore Government machinery is running. We hope the Government will forget their contemplation to invite this learned Professor from far off Chidambaram.
